

CAMPOAMOR

Campoamor is one of the hidden pearls of the Costa Blanca, Alicante, Spain where you can buy quality property at inexpensive prices, located on the Orihuela Costa this residential area of premium range property is surrounded by an authentic paradise.

One of the best things about buying property in Campoamor is that it offers a fantastic natural environment. On one hand it has some of the best award winning beaches in the area, which are only a short distance away, all equipped with full cleaning and lifeguard services, along with parks and other leisure activities for both adults and children.

Campoamor is also famous for its Real Club Campoamor 18 hole major championship golf course, nestled between two interconnected valleys and surrounded by natural beauty, the other natural attraction is that the area offers many outdoor activities, it is close to the natural park "Sierra Escalona" and the "Dehesa de Campoamor" which provide a home to many protected animals and has been designed and adapted so that those interested can participate in hiking and many other sporting activities.

There are many bars, restaurants and commercial centres within this area and it is very popular as a European destination for tourists, which also means that many stay and reside here for most if not the whole year, making Campoamor a holiday destination aswell as a place to buy residential property also.

If you include in addition to the latter, the fact that the main cities such as Orihuela, Murcia and Alicante are less than an hour away by car, this destination is an obvious choice when choosing somewhere to relax for a while or a place to be once you have retired.
