

CARTAGENA

Cartagena, a naval port city on the Mediterranean coast of Costa Calida, Murcia, is known to be one of the world's oldest ports and once home to one of the most important of Spanish fleets, it has been prized since Carthaginian times. Because of its strategic position on the coast, it has been inhabited by several cultures including the Romans and the Moors who have left their mark on its artistic heritage. A tour of this historic and fascinating city with all of its museums and tiny cobbled streets will draw you into a city closely and inevitably tied to the sea.
