

FORTUNA

Fortuna is a spa town to the north east of Murcia city near to the border of the province and is very well known for its hot natural springs which were greatly appreciated by the Romans. Fortuna has fast become a popular town because of its importance as a centre for hydrotherapy, beauty treatments and other therapies associated with the natural hot mineral water. A typically Spanish town Fortuna is still relatively unexploited, with peaceful streets and a white church with an interesting bell tower. For country lovers, to the south of the town, there is a large lake enclosed in a nature preservation area and surrounded by woods, ideal for walking, fishing and even picknicking. Fortuna is about an hour's drive west from the coast, the principal city of Murcia is approximately 18km away whilst the next village of Abanilla, to the west, is less than a 10 minute drive away.