

LA FLORIDA

La Florida, situated approximately 4km only from the nearest beach and town, is a tranquil, reasonably sized "self contained" residential area which forms part of the Orihuela Costa being the most southerly stretch of the Costa Blanca. La Florida as an urbanization and community is made up of "pretty" apartments, bungalows, townhouses and detached villas, many people from all over Europe and beyond have bought property in La Florida and now live here all year round, it is also a popular tourist destination due to the close proximity of many fine championship golf courses and the stunning Blue Flag beaches of Torrevieja, Orihuela Costa and Murcia.

La Florida incorporates it's very own commercial centre with all types of bars, restaurants, supermarkets, shopping and entertainment areas close by, it's perfectly communicated with bus stops, parks, sport centres with indoor swimming pools and the two main hospitals of Torrevieja.

There are loads of interesting places to visit for culture, history, siteseeing and many other exciting activities to choose from and to participate in for all ages, including walking and cycling with designated routes everywhere to be found.

It is not only beaches and bars, there is so much more to see and do, from here you can travel easily to Benidorm, Alicante, Orihuela, Cartagena, Murcia and of course Torrevieja, as well as many other smaller places and destinations slightly inland.

The food in Orihuela Costa is very much varied and almost any type of international cuisine is available in the many eateries situated nearby and along the coast, the choice is endless and it's not expensive too. You don't even have to take your car to have a wide range of great eating and drinking options available, which in turn will please everyone.

One of the main venues in La Florida is the very popular Emerald Isle Resort which offers a bar, restaurant, large swimming pool, an established bowls club with green and nightly entertainment, all is offered together with good quality food at reasonable prices.

The Emerald Isle Resort is open to the public everyday and night, it caters for live events and has that special something for everyone to enjoy throughout the whole year.
