

ORIHUELA COSTA

Orihuela Costa is a coastal region situated on the Costa Blanca in the province of Alicante. It sits close to the border with Murcia and near La Manga with the beautiful Mar Menor. Despite its name it is actually around 30 kilometres away from the main city of Orihuela.

The region covers several seaside resorts including Punta Prima, Playa Flamenca, La Zenia, Cabo Roig, Villamartin, Campoamor and Mil Palmeras.

Orihuela Costa is an ideal destination for those looking to purchase a new holiday or investment home or just wanting to enjoy a beach family holiday, it also has 16 kilometres of diverse coastline and is an excellent choice for golfers, in fact Orihuela Costa is well equipped for all needs with lots of amenities, facilities and leisure attractions.

Area by Area

The seaside resort of Cabo Roig is located at the southern end of the Costa Blanca in Orihuela Costa, this charming area is home to several blue flag beaches, and enjoys a spectacular mountainous backdrop. Just 10 kilometres from Torrevieja, Cabo Roig itself has wide palm lined avenues and delightful lush gardens, with breathtaking views to the Mediterranean Sea, the La Manga Peninsula and Mar Menor.

The tranquil resort urbanization of Playa Flamenca is situated close to the lively town of Torrevieja on the Costa Blanca. The area is home to delightful beaches, golf and lots of recreational facilities such as water parks, tennis, go-carting and tennis.

Again close to Torrevieja is the popular resort of La Zenia. The area has everything one needs to enjoy a perfect stay, blue flag beaches, golf, good amenities, lots of Spanish and international restaurants and a beautiful surrounding countryside to explore. La Zenia is one of the most famous resorts on the Costa Blanca and is home to the region's largest shopping centre Zenia Boulevard.

The local beaches around Punta Prima have been awarded 67 European Blue Flags and range from natural sand dunes with a pinewood backdrop, to long stretches of golden, fine sandy beaches. Punta Prima is really an urbanization made up of apartments, townhouses and luxury detached villas, situated some 5 kilometres to the south west of Torrevieja.