

VILLAMARTIN GOLF COURSE - ORIHUELA COSTA, ALICANTE

Villamartin Golf Course is a par 72 measuring 6,132 metres from the White Tees, it was designed by Paul Puttman and opened in 1972. It is one of the most established courses on the Costa Blanca and has hosted several PGA tour competitions.

The terrain is a mixture of hills and valleys surrounded by mature trees and vegetation, the front nine holes take in the highest point of the course offering some spectacular views of the Mediterranean Sea.

The signature hole for the course, the 17th, must be one of the best par 3's in Spain, it is 220 metres from the elevated back tee and is all carry over a valley to a two tiered green. The green is surrounded by trees and bunkers and the view from the tee is spectacular.

Villamartin Golf Course & Resort

As well as being a great golf course, Villamartin Golf, situated near to Real Club Campoamor Golf and Las Ramblas Golf, is also famous for its Plaza, the area's main commercial centre and home to some of the world's most beautifully coloured tropical birds, also it has some of the best bars, restaurants and shops on the Costa Blanca, it has a wonderful atmosphere and there is something for everyone.

Less than a five minute drive towards the coast will take you to Zenia Boulevard, the region's largest shopping centre and to the excellent Blue Flag beaches of Orihuela Costa.

The area is extremely popular with golf groups and families.
